

Here are some related works:

1. The Impact of Technology on Modern Architecture: Exploring how advancements in technology have shaped contemporary architectural practices and philosophies.
2. The Legacy of Mies van der Rohe: An in-depth analysis of Mies van der Rohe's contributions to modern architecture, focusing on his use of space, materials, and the concept of the 'free plan'.
3. Architectural Historiography and its Evolution: Discussing the development of architectural historiography and how different eras have influenced the interpretation of architectural history.
4. The Role of Columns and Walls in Architecture: A study tracing the historical and theoretical significance of columns and walls in the formation of architectural styles from ancient to modern times.
5. Comparative Analysis of Modern Architects: An examination of the works of different modern architects and their unique contributions to architectural theory and practice.
6. Cultural Influences on Architectural Design: Investigating how various cultural movements and philosophies have impacted architectural styles and frameworks across different regions.
7. Deconstructionism in Architecture: An exploration of how deconstructionist theories have influenced modern architectural practice and the interpretation of space.
8. Sustainability and Modern Architecture: Discussing the current trends in architecture that integrate sustainable practices and how they relate back to earlier modernist principles.

If you are looking for specific articles, consider searching academic databases like JSTOR, Google Scholar, or architectural journals that publish contemporary discussions on architectural theory and history.