<https://faculti.net/a-culturally-responsive-school-leadership-approach-to-developing-equity-centered-principals/>

This video discusses the importance of prioritizing equity in schools and reevaluating resources and practices to support marginalized students. It emphasizes the need for leaders to have a vision for prioritizing equity, understanding historical oppression, and fostering critical consciousness. This video also explores the impact of past segregation on educational opportunities and the disparities in resource allocation and teacher diversity. Leaders are encouraged to conduct equity audits, engage in racial reflections, and address unconscious biases to promote a more inclusive and supportive educational environment for all students. The goal is to create schools where all students experience joy, pride, and equitable access to education.
