

Faculti Summary

<https://faculti.net/clinical-supervision-a-competency-based-approach/>

This video is about a conversation on clinical supervision, emphasizing the importance of competence, knowledge, education, and training in effective supervision. The conversation also touches on multicultural awareness, values, professionalism, alliance, and the practical application of technical skills in supervision. The book discussed in the conversation is noted for blending scholarship with practical applications based on scientific knowledge and understanding.